Community Service is where the rubber meets the road. It is where church members touch the lives of those in need, where contacts are made and relationships formed.

From street ministries to disaster response, medical clinics to community service centers this ministry is about meeting some of most urgent needs of the people around us.

In this catalog you will find resources that help

- Assess the needs in your community
- Develop leadership skills
- Organize for effective ministry
- Create specialized programs

Mobilize the members in your church for service and reach souls for Christ.
